

Potential Responsible Party

Name/Business	Holland America Group
Vessel Name	Volendam
Mailing Address	vodm-environmental_officer@hollandamerica.com
Contact Name	Eddie Swift - HVO Environmental Officer
Is PRP Vessel Aware of Incidents	Yes
Remarks	Agent, authorities, and HAL headquarters notified
Will Vessel Be Self Reporting Incident to ADEC-SPAR	Don't know
Remarks	Agent, authorities, and HAL headquarters were notified immediately. The Incident had just occurred an hour earlier and the EO hadn't completed a Spill Incident Report for the company yet.

Reporting Party Information

Report Date	Aug 25, 2018
Person Reporting	Ocean Ranger
Vessel Stationed Aboard	Princess Coral
Vessel Code	PCR
Trip Type	VO

Spill Information

Date & Time of Spill	Aug 25, 2018 9:30:00 AM AKDT
Date & Time Discovered	Aug 25, 2018 9:30:00 AM AKDT
Description of Location	Skagway Railroad Dock
Substance Type	NC - Non Crude Oil (Aviation Fuel, Bilge Oil, Diesel, Lube Oil, Hydraulic Oil, etc.)
Product Spilled	Hydraulic oil
Spilled Quantity	Unknown
Spilled UOM	Unknown
Affected Area (number)	1
Affected UOM	Sq Meters
Color And Appearance	Unknown
Source of Spill	A Cherry Picker lift used for maintenance
Is it a greater than 400GT Vessel?	No
Cause of Spill	It's reported that hydraulic hose broke on the Cherry Picker lift
Cleanup Actions	The Deck 7 on the Volendam, the Cherry Picker lift, and the Railroad Dock deck were cleaned up by ships force. The small amount of oil that went in the water dissipated rapidly in the windy currents.
Comments	EO informed me during an In Port visit to the Volendam this morning. The hydraulic hose

Photos

Photo 1

Photo 1 Comments

Hydraulic Hose break location with oil absorbent pads on dockside Cherry Picker lift on Skagway Railroad Dock

Photo 2

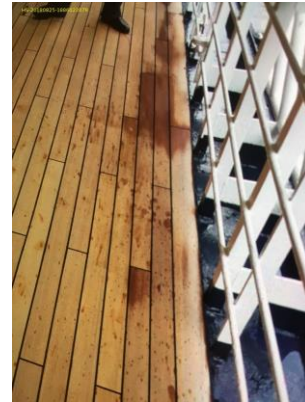

Photo 2 Comments

HVO - Hydraulic oil from Cherry Picker leak
on Deck 7 portside

Photo 3

Photo 3 Comments

HVO - Cherry Picker on Dock with ship's agent nearby